The Class of 1987 last year's senior class has now moved on to adulthood. The four years they passed at J. H. S. can be summarized by their motto, "We dare to do what others only dream of." Their symbol, the stallion, exemplifies their quest for unparalleled success. This class appropriately chose Mr. Dwight Willson as its Commencement speaker. Mr. Willson, respected by countless students over the years, retired from teaching at J. H. S. last June, 1987. The class song, "Don't You Forget About Me" will be certain for the seniors of 1987 and for Dwight Willson.

A'Cappella In Europe

Last April 19th-28th, 1987, the A'Cappella Choir traveled on a European Concert Tour through Austria, Germany, and Italy. The 40,000 dollars they raised throughout the year unabed them to embark upon this once-in-a-lifetime experience. Two members stand out for almost all of the members who participated - performing in Salzburg Cathedral and in St. Stephen's Cathedral.

Homecoming '88

The city of Jamestown reverberated with excitement and anticipation to participate in another win by the Red Raider Varsity football team, heralded as undefeated. We were not disappointed as Jamestown devastated Frontier by a score of 43-0. Our football team was the school's source of pride as was evident throughout Homecoming Weekend. A multitude of fans cheered the Raider's Victory on Saturday, October 10.

The traditional Homecoming Weekend parade on Friday evening began the festivities with a rallying of school spirit that would predict Saturday's success. A massive "Red Raider" football player, complete with feather headdress was constructed as the senior's float. Every class had worked diligently to create floats for the downtown parade which culminated in a roaring, cheering session at the bonfire was finally "home" again in the high school field.

Recognition at Saturday's game was received by the Homecoming King and Queen, selected by popular ballot. This year's royalty were Andy Brink and Alison Ney.

ALMA MATER

Alma Mater, thy name in honor we hold
 J. H. S., thou art dear to us all
 Swell the chorus of songs, let thy praises be told
 While together school days we recall
 The old study hall shrines, the joy of our youth,
 'Tis the place where the "school spirit" bides - - -
 The spirit wings jest from the gravest of truth
 And cheers us whatever betides

And still J. H. S., in the years that shall be,
 Thy scenes will crowd memory's hour,
 The classroom, the "Gym", the old willow tree
 E'en the clock that keeps watch in the tower
 Thy boys and thy girls, thine and for aye—
 Spite of changes old times shall have seen—
 We'll stand for the right, for the honor we'll try
 Of our colors, the Red and the Green

MILTON J. FLETCHER

Stanza No. 3 Written by Florence F. McGuirl, September, 1942

You are gone, dear old school, yet there stands in your place
 One that makes our hearts quicken with pride
 But you've left inspiration time ne'er can efface
 And with us you will always abide
 For your spirit lives on, the old school in the new
 As a seed lives again in its flower—
 The old willow still whispers to us to be true
 And the clock watches us from the tower

JHS Spirit Shines Through!

Top Ten

Education is a companion which no misfortune can depress, no crime can destroy, no enemy can alienate, no despotism can enslave. At home a friend, abroad an introduction, in solitude a solace, and in society an ornament. It chastens vice, it guides virtue, it gives at once grace and government to genius. Without it, what is man? A splendid slave, a reasoning savage

We Knew
We Were Good

Jamestown High School has received the distinct honor of being accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools.

This means that J.H.S. meets or exceeds the high standards established by the Middle State Association regarding the quality of education provided our students.

The accreditation process took two years. It included an intense, year long self evaluation by the complete faculty. A steering committee of faculty members composed of Mrs. Hendrickson, Mrs. Pasquale, Mr. Deppas, Mr. Pritchard, and Mr. McElrath. Co-chairmen Miss Braungard and Mr. D. Anderson headed this effort.

The school was then visited by 25 educators from several states who evaluated every aspect of our educational system. In addition, the visiting committee interviewed students, parents, support staff, administrators and Board of Education members. The visiting committee then forwarded its recommendation to the Middle States Association and accreditation was granted.

Our community should be very proud that Jamestown High School has been recognized by an outside, independent evaluation organization as being an outstanding educational institution.

The accreditation is good for ten years.

Marching Band

The 1987-88 JHS Marching Band had an eventful season. They hosted a successful indoor Fall Festival of Bands show on September 19. Annie Carlson was a special guest there. They travelled to the Buffalo Bills game on November 1, and played a pre-game, the half-time show, and a post-game. They then packed up and travelled to the States Competition in Syracuse on November 8-9, which they placed fifth in the state. On November 13-15, they went to Detroit, Michigan to compete in the National Championships for the first time. They placed 20th in the Nation. The band then got a rest before they took their long awaited trip to St. Petersburg, Florida. They were in the Sunshine State from March 31-April 9. They were in several competitions including: field show, concert band, and parade. They also visited the Magic Kingdom of Disney World, and EPCOT Center.

Louis Deppas was director, and the band council officers were Lynn Dunham, President; Alison Ney, Vice-President; Hillary Karapantso, Secretary; Terry Horner, Treasurer; and Amy Backus, Historian. The color guard captains were Sue Karapantso, flags; Stacy Panebianco, and Jackie Giunta, rifles; and Marianne DiNapoli, drill team.

Switzerland during the spring break. They enjoyed skiing and visiting all the famous places on the French Riviera that could be squeezed into two memorable weeks. The club financed the trip by various fund raisers such as the annual candy sale. Other events included a French dinner and a cheese and sausage sale. The officers were selected early in the year. Bob Anderson was elected President; Eugene Kim, vice-president; Allison Slater, secretary; Stephanie Costanzo and Jeff Swanson, co-treasurers. Advisor for the French club was Mr. Coffman who is looking forward to another year in '88.

The students enjoyed the holiday preparing a Spanish meal, breaking a pinata, and entertaining with Spanish dances, skits, poems, and Christmas carols. MacDuff's Restaurant was the setting for an authentic Spanish feast. Fluency in the Spanish language was tested when the Spanish students travelled to Spain during spring break. These language students also performed during the Art Week festivities.

Ski Club

The Ski Club had a great 1988 season. Four bus loads left JHS on Monday nights for Holiday Valley where the students had an opportunity to ski some challenging slopes. Weather conditions were good this year, which provided good skiing and fun for the club. Ski Club was advised by Mr. Reinhold, and this year's officers were co-presidents Tom Andersen and Alison Ney

The International Relations Club is a non-profit organization which is established for the benefit of the students. This year JHS had the privilege of hosting six foreign exchange students. They were Julie Sommers (Australia), Jan Lange (Germany), Suzanne Rindestam (Sweden), David Ruiz and Ana Paso (Both from Spain), and Mario Fernal (Brazil). Two JHS students had the opportunity to travel to foreign countries. They were Debbie Sellman who went to Australia and Joel e Overcash who went to Belgium

During Easter vacation, the German Club members traveled to Porz, West Germany, further enhancing their knowledge of the language and people. Foreign Language Competition at Jamestown Community College and Fredonia State College were attended by our German students. Valerie Buckley, president; Bill Heasley, vice president; Lisa Briggs, secretary; and Ed Eckroth, treasurer, planned a Sommerfest held in late spring.

The hard work and dedication of putting together something as large as a yearbook is never quite acknowledged. Most people don't realize how frustrating it can be to come to school early or to stay after until 4:00 (when you get out at 1:35) just to work on the yearbook. A lot of hours, hard work, and even a little fun have been put into this year's yearbook. We hope you enjoy it!

The Student Organization is composed of all officers and councils from the freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior classes, along with their advisors. These representatives meet weekly to determine decisions regarding the entire student body. Some events planned by the Student Organization were: The Battle of the Classes, homecoming dances, spirit week, the bloodmobile, and special projects.

The Student Fund Committee is made up of the principals, the presidents of each class, Mrs. Erickson, the school treasurer, Mr. Beringhoff and Mr. Doverspike, who serve as chairmen. The committee meets once a month to decide how the school funds should be spent. In the past, funds have been spent for such things as a new score board in the old gym, printing supplies for the Raider Voice, and other needy organizations.

This year, The Raider Voice obtained a new portable light table and a new printer which have greatly improved the quality of the newspaper. The Raider Voice also competed for journalistic awards at St. Bonaventure University and at SUNY Fredonia. The staff was represented by Elisabeth French at a journalism workshop at Syracuse University.

Was A Success!

Anything Goes was the title of this year's musical, which proved that romance is fickle, fun, and frustrating. Stephanie Costanzo as Reno Sweeney; Alison Slater as Hope Harcourt; Gary Peters as Sir Welyn Oakleigh; and Josh Morrill as Billy Crocker, played the leading roles to convince us that love can surmount any obstacles. Our musical, presented on the first weekend in March, was directed by Mr. Hedberg, and assisted by Michele Constantino who also choreographed the production. Choral Director, Julie Livengood, and Norman Lydell, Orchestra Director, succeeded in the making of a polished performance.

The overall success of a musical is not only attributed to the actors and actresses, but to the tremendous amount of work that goes into the props, scenery and sets. The backstage club is a big part of the musical, though it is rarely recognized. The students spent long hours making the production a success. As well as directing the musical, Mr. Hedberg also advised the backstage club

Quick reflexes and a wide range of knowledge are needed to be on JHS Academic Quiz Team. Four-player teams answer toss-up and bonus questions against other high schools around the area on "High School Bowl." The program is heard every Sunday night on SE-93

Team captain Jason Roberts led a solid team this year which included six other seniors. The other starting three were Matt Prohaska, Carrie Garnezy, and Terry Horner. First substitutes consisted of Christine Bailey, John Videll, and Chris Duro.

When these seniors graduate, several freshman will be here to replace them. Alexis Theofilactidis, Daniel Ritchie, and Tonya McCreary have the playing experience to build a strong new team.

At the time of this writing, Jamestown had already picked up two victories in the "High School Bowl" tournament. They defeated Cassadaga Valley 173-27 and Pine Valley 129-113.

Honor Society

The Kappa Alpha tau Chapter of the National Honor Society, advised by Mr Clayton Berlinghoff, exemplified the ideals of character, leadership, scholarship, and service. Under the leadership of Jason Roberts, president; Lynn Dunham vice president, Christine Bailey, secretary; and Tricia Hedberg, treasurer; the society participated in aiding the Red Cross and organizations such as the Babe Ruth Baseball Headquarters and the Reg Lenna Civic Center. The Honor students were also responsible for vending concessions at the varsity and junior varsity home basketball games. In order to raise scholarship funds, the Honor Society members held a jewelry sale

The JHS Madrigal Singers have taken on a "new look" with the ladies wearing their beautiful dusty rose gowns & white bead necklaces, and the men attired in their new blue blazers, heather grey slacks & wine, white & blue ties. The busy Christmas holiday season included twenty concerts & programs presented by the Madrigal Singers to local organizations & clubs. A major event for the Spring was to sing two massed choir selections for the Jamestown Concert Association program which also included guest concert pianist, Lorin Hollander

Men Of Tomorrow

The Men of Tomorrow have come to be highly respected at J.H.S. as the "makers of song." The nearly 40 voices sing with a virile, masculine sound, which invariably makes their portion of the program one of the highlights of each concert. They work a variety of music ranging from spirituals to Broadway show tunes. Their good spirit and enthusiasm is reflected in the audience's response to their songs!

The 104-voice Mixed Chorus rehearses daily, set 5, in the choral music room. They learn a great deal about the rudiments and basic techniques of good choral production and singing. They are always the major source of talent for next year's A Capella Choir. They have learned a wide range of music, including both religious and secular octavos, and have done a very commendable job with their performances this year. The J.H.S. Girls Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Norman Lyde, the 60-voice ensemble, rehearses every day, 6 set. The girls have come to learn and appreciate good choral literature.

The ninth grade football team made a comeback after a two years' absence. The team had a record of two wins and four losses. The team was coached by David Currie and Jerry Noonan. We are sorry for the lack of a picture of the team. We are deeply sorry.

The JV team had a very successful season with only two losses. The team, coached by Jim Painter and John Mistretta. There are many fine members who have a bright future in the field of football. Jamestown looks like it has a promising fall season in 88.

Varsity Football

The Jamestown High School Red Raider Varsity Football Team had a great year finishing with an almost perfect 8-1 season. Our school, community, and of course the players had a great feeling of accomplishment when the Red Raiders went to no. 1 in NYS after their eighth straight win. The Raiders hadn't been this victorious since 1967. Coach Huckno felt that players today are more independent and better conditioned, and said that the football program is a lot more competitive and demanding. This years captains were Kurt Eimiller and Bob Polino. Kurt Eimiller was awarded Most Valuable Player, while Scott Baglia was Most Improved Player. Other awards were Most Valuable Defensive Lineman-Mark Hilt, Most Valuable Offensive Lineman-Terry Green, Shawn Bowman Most Valuable Defensive Back- Jon DeAngelo, Most Valuable Offensive Back-Ned Battle Mike Zangh Award Gregg Wilson, George Ziliox Award Bob Polino Coaches Award Glen McCoy Achievement Award-Kris Schreckengost, and named to the all WNY Team were Shawn Bowman and Mark Hilt. This long list of outstanding accomplishments by the Raiders showed that they never surrendered!

This is the first year the Jamestown sports department has had a volleyball team. The girls who participated in this year's season did extremely well for the first season. Coached by Fran Carlson who started out the season with a broken ankle, the teams, JV and Varsity, finished the season with many ups and downs. JV finished with 7 wins and 8 losses. Varsity had a harder time, ending with 2 wins out of 16 games. Congratulations go out to the great athletes of volleyball that JHS produced for its first volleyball team.

SENIORS

Class Of '88

Sue Karapontic, secretary; Bob Anderson, treasurer; Arson Nev, co-president; M's Whitehead, class '88 advisor; Rachel Fante, president; Page Rizzo, vice president; Lisa Galati, historian.

The Senior class of 1988 will indeed "Cherish yesterday; Dream tomorrow; Live today," after its commencement on June 24, 1988, at Chautauqua Institution. The class began its year by selecting Ben E. King's "Stand By Me" as the class song. The seniors also held a Christmas Semi-Formal with the juniors at the Crystal Ball Room. The Battle of the Classes gave the seniors a chance to display their school spirit. "Follow you, Follow Me," by Genesis was the theme song of the Prom which was held in May 1988 at the Armory. Undoubtedly, memories of the "breath-taking" Prom will linger in the minds of those who attended. Baccalaureate and Graduation were the culmination of a successful year for the Class of 1988.

What are they up to now?

Bob Anderson

Senior Class Council

The Senior class council had a busy year organizing events and making decisions. They met Thursday mornings to plan such things as commencement, baccalaureate, and the prom. These dedicated members also spent time setting up for dances, building the class float, and deciding the class song, motto, colors, and banner. Their hard work and great results will long be remembered by their fellow classmen.

A parting shot

There First Must Be A Rainstorm

I stare outside the window
As it begins to rain,
And I suddenly realize
That twelve years have passed by

I put my hand on the cold glass
Remembering my very first day of school . . .
I quickly smile thinking of the
Simplicity of kindergarden.
I recollect each grade,
One by one.

As the rain begins to pour

Each day, each month, each year,
Seem like mere streams
In the river of life.

I am instantly unmesmerized by the
Beating thunder of the storm.

My mind is now focused on
The Junior High Years.
Somehow
Adolescence crept its way into
Our lives,
And we were faced with many new
Challenges and responsibilities .

The storm has begun to subside now,
Though I can hear the water
Running through the drainpipes.

As Junior High runs into High School

High School,
The best years of our lives,
Are nearly over.
There are so many memories
Instilled in our minds

I now open my front door.
The rain is gone.
The sky is blue
The air is clear

I sit on the porch steps
And stare at the ground.
Just as I was getting used to the storm.
It was gone.

I notice a daisy, still moist from the rain,
Growing amongst the weeds.
I reach out to pick it,
But then cease

For, I know in order for the flowers to grow
And the new days to begin,
There first
Must be a rainstorm.

SOPHOMORES

Class Of '90

The sophomore class of '90 had an eventful year. They started out by choosing their class officers advised by Mr Hedberg. They built a float for homecoming and were active in school functions. Their motto, "The view from the summit is worth the climb," was aptly chosen for the sophomores.

Sophomore Class Council

The sophomore class council had a busy second year at JHS. The class conducted a raider hat and towel sale during the basketball season. Their colors, red and gray, were decided as well as their motto. Their banner was discussed and a semi-formal was planned. The class of '90 was also in student organization.

Class Of '91

Coming of age as freshmen, the class of '91 proved to be full of school spirit. An election of officers took place in early fall. The class built a float for homecoming and were happy to take part in the weekend activities. The freshmen are anticipating their next year as sophomores

Freshmen Class Council

Row 1: Julie Drake, Gina Swanson, Krista Hegberg, Amanda Swankhamer, Julie Elardo, Lauren Payne. The freshmen class council had a busy year making decisions. Some early decisions made by the class of '91 were a jersey and t-shirt sale, and a competition for the design of the class banner. Blue and gray were decided as the colors. The council had yet to decide their motto and mascot. The freshmen were happy to be included as a part of JHS.

News To Remember

Marine Lt. Colonel Oliver North was a key officer in the plan to finance an insurgent government rebel in Nicaragua with money from arms sales to Iran. In testimony before the Iran-Contra hearings in Washington, North became somewhat of a celebrity.

In the six years since Americans first heard of a mysterious, mind-ravaging disease from which one receives AIDS, has killed nearly 100,000 Americans, medical scientists have poured out millions of dollars in research and President Reagan has proclaimed the plague "Public Health Enemy No. 1."

News To Remember

In an effort to keep the Persian Gulf open to navigation, the United States began in July to escort convoys to protect them from Iran. In September, the U.S. Navy blew up an Iranian ship caught laying mines. Several mines were confiscated.

The Dow Jones industrial stock average dropped 608 points, the largest one-day drop in Monday, October 19.

Two of the top entertainers were Madonna and Whitney Houston.

News To Remember

A 24 day strike by the N.F.L. players ended in mid-October when the union capitulated and went to court instead of trying to fight the club owners at the bargaining table.

Kirby Puckett and Jeff Reardon of the Minnesota Twins celebrate their World Series victory over the St. Louis Cardinals. The Twins won the seventh game 4-2.

The Golden Gate Bridge in San Francisco celebrated its 50th birthday. 250,000 people jammed the bridge for a walk across the span. Another 5,000 were denied access because the engineers feared the span could not support the weight.

Patrons

Again this year the J.H.S. yearbook staff would like to express its sincere thanks to our yearbook patrons. Through their generosity we are able to keep the price of the book low enough to be affordable for most students.

This year, even though the total school population is declining, we sold forty more books than last year. There is little doubt that this increase was due to the fact that we were able to lower the price of the book to students. This decrease would not have been possible without the help of our patrons.

We thank them very much.

The production of a book of this size and complexity is a long and difficult task. It demands long hours of intense work by many students, and the cooperation and support of an understanding faculty. I thank all who had a part in making this publication possible.

There are three students whose response to the challenge of producing this book has been outstanding. They are Kassima Adam, Sue Karapontso and Ann Karapontso. They have given time, every day, to insure that what has to be done is done, done well and on time. It is no exaggeration to say that without their dedication this book would not have been possible.

Cheryl Chubb, our business editor had the monumental task of organizing the book sale and book distribution. Her long hours of work to insure that everyone who bought a book gets a book is a critical part of our effort.

I thank them all.
